

Eastern Woodland
Indian Cultures of Maryland

Unit: Woodland Lifeways
Lesson: Survival - Tool Kit Analysis

Names: _____

Date: _____

Woodland Indians made their tools from the materials available in their environment. In many instances a group of tools were needed to make other tools or provide products needed for survival. Study these objects as a related group. What activity or function does this group of objects represent?

Ask yourselves:
What is it made of?		How do you think it was made?
What might it have been used for?		What modern object does it remind you of?
Tool or Object	Raw Material	Modern Equivalent
What is the function of this tool kit or group of objects?		