

Name: _____

Date: _____

Directions:

Look at the photograph of the wigwam. Imagine that you are visiting a new place and have just walked upon this building. Write a description of what you see to tell your friend when you return home. Think about what it is made of, how you think it was made, what it is used for, and what else you see.

My Journal: Encountering the Wigwam