Welcome to the Jefferson Patterson Park and Museum Audio Tour

A Culture Revisited

On this tour you will learn about the lives of African Americans in Southern Maryland in general and those at Jefferson Patterson Park & Museum in particular before the land was turned over to the State of Maryland. This project was produced by the Huntingtown High School 2011-2012 Archaeology Class, and contains commentary from an archaeologist, a descendant, and others who experienced the changes that took place in the 20 century in Calvert County.

As you listen you will encounter information spanning over 300 years of history at Jefferson Patterson Park & Museum relating to African American lives. This tour, A Culture Revisited, will lead you through the lifestyles in real African Americans' lives at different points in time as you move around the landscape. We thank you for taking the time to experience this tour, and hope this will be an enjoyable and educational experience for all.

This tour was made possible through the generous support of the Friends of JPPM, the Board of the Maryland Historical Trust, the Garrett Music Academy, an Anonymous Donor, the Calvert County Public Schools and Target®.
